

Changes to the Oranga Tamariki Act. How do we respond?

Good information sharing for child wellbeing

A joint-venture capability development programme of SSPA and NZCCSS

An NGO 'Train the Trainer' Workshop: Calling for expressions of interest.

An interactive workshop that will build on your experiences in good information sharing in response to the changes introduced in July 2019 by the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989.

Interested in being one of 20 NGO sector trainers to receive training at no cost?
Prepared to

- Participate in the 'Train the Trainer' 1-day workshop held 19 August Wellington.
- Facilitate the one-day workshop in early to mid-September in your region.
- Co-ordinate a Community of Practice network in your region.

Come along and utilise this as your place to connect, share insights and deepen your own information sharing practice. Contribute to the design of the regional workshops, one of which you will be delivering in your region. You or your organisation will be reimbursed for your facilitation of the workshop in your region.

Click here to request an Expression of Interest (EOI) in being a participant on the 'train the trainers' workshop.

Benefit from the chance to take the learning back to colleagues in your region and strengthen your interactive facilitation and training skills.
